Aspirations, Expectations, No Excuses

This Week...

English Charlie and the Chocolate Factory

The girls began writing an advert for their own chocolate bar. They ensured they included persuasive devices like alliteration, statistics and emotive language to attract the reader.

Mathematics

The girls began to learn various methods on how to solve word problems involving multiplication and divisions. They also looked at bar charts and pictograms to interpret and represent data.

Geography

We explored the global regions where cacao beans are grown, identified the leading cacao-producing countries, and discussed how their geographical location affects production.

The girls also learned about the physical and human features of these countries.

Religious Education

We continued to learn about Ramadan, a holy month focused on fasting, prayer, and self-reflection, and how Eid is celebrated.

History

This week the girls continued exploring the history of chocolate and created a chronological timeline using secondary sources.
