This Week...

English Charlie and the Chocolate Factory

The girls wrote the final part of their advert, ensuring good use of descriptive devices to draw in the reader.

Mathematics

This week, the girls learned how to interpret bar and line graphs and how to accurately draw graphs to scale using given data. They also began exploring hundredths as fractions, developing an understanding of how whole numbers can be divided into equal parts and represented in fractional form.

D.T

This week the girls have looked at a range of chocolate wrappers and thought about what they could see. They explained which wrapper was "eye catching"

and created their own calligraphy.

History

The girls have begun to create a booklet about the history of chocolate.

R.E

The children learnt about the festival of Holi, which is celebrated by Hindus. During this festival, worshippers celebrate the arrival of spring, the victory of good over evil, and enjoy throwing coloured powders and water while sharing joy and happiness with others.
