Winterbourne Junior Girls' Year 3 Newsletter

Week ending Friday 22nd May 2026

Art: Pupils explored the inspiring work of Andy Goldsworthy, who creates incredible sculptures using natural materials. Inspired by his work, the girls worked together to create beautiful butterfly sculptures using leaves, sticks, stones and other natural objects. Their creativity, teamwork and enthusiasm truly shone through.

STARS OF THE WEEK

3.1: Helena & Kae

3.3: Nevaeh & Elianny

Bucket Fillers

3.1: Zuha & Vrisha

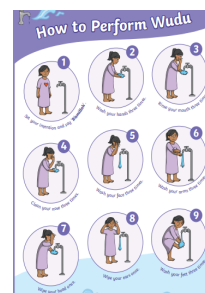

3.3: Whole Class

English: Pupils worked hard to edit and publish their persuasive letters, taking pride in their presentation and showing excellent penmanship. They then carefully placed their finished letters into envelopes. The pupils also completed their STAR Reading and SPaG assessments with great focus and determination.

completed their STAR Reading and SPaG assessments with great focus and determination.

RE: Pupils have shown secure understanding of the importance of prayer in Islam as a central act of worship. They can explain the purpose of Wudu and understand how ritual washing prepares Muslims physically and spiritually before prayer.
